

Local Storyteller, Russ Conrad

You're invited to:

Travel back in time with Russ as he shares memories from his childhood, his family and all those happy years in the hardware store.

This program is:

Open to everyone

Stories will mainly interest:

Adults

Sunday, April 18th
2:00 p.m.

@ the Pendleton County
Public Library

"I am an entertainment storyteller. I have lived the American dream, working in a small town hardware store for over 50 years. While weighing nails and explaining toilet repair I have picked up a lot of stories, most of them are good and a few are even true. I have a special insight to small town, rural Kentucky living, and a unique way to share it by storytelling. Let me share a story with you and your friends."

- Russ Conrad

